Rugby, England.

Dear M. Le Doux:

I have read your letter with a great deal of interest, and I am making inquiries to see whether it is possible for us to do anything in the way of providing work for you during the next twelve months. It will be another fortnight at least before I am able to let you know the result. You have our deep sympathy, and there is a strong probability that we may be able to help you in some way, though I cannot yet speak definitely.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of March 4th arrived to me with some delay because I changed several times of address. In the meantime I received information from Vice President Ramsay Wright giving me hope that I could be called to go to your University.

I accept, with great gratitude, the generous offer you did to me and I ask you to be my interpreter to the Professors of the University for the kind sign of Comfraternity they are giving to me.

I am sailing with Mr. Ledoux from Liverpool on the steamer "Metagama" on next 26th. We will also arrive in Toronto in the first week of April.

With my best thanks to the Faculty of the University of Toronto, and to their President,

I am,

Yours truly

Dear President,

I express you my deepest gratitude for your charming letter of June 21. I should certainly have given you a quicker answer if I had not wanted to take advice of medicine, before taking a positive decision. That has now been done and medicine council me to continue my work in the country, as the life in the open air is the best remedy for me.

In fact, the state of my health is not so bad, as M<sup>rs</sup> Ledoux understood it by reading my letters, and so as she told it to Professor Walker. Also, I think I do better to remain here actually, but I will have big attention to your words and see not to overwork myself.

After the numerous proofs of interest and sympathy you have given me, in this terrible year, this is a new one of which the delicacy and the goodness touch upon me, so as I cannot enough express you my thanks.

for it.

I permit myself to present my respectful homages to Madame Falconer..

With kindest regards I am

Yours respectfully,

Prof. Medouze
